DAVIS THEATRE.

New Show Today, Paramount Feature with David Higgins In "His Last Dollar," Charlie Chaplin in a Funny Keystone and Three Big Time Acts.

For the mid-week change of program at this popular theatre the Paramount feature is the famous racing play His Last Dollar, with David Higgins in the role originally created by him. It is the most thrilling drama of its type ever produced in America. The success of the original production was so decisive and notable that the title of the play has become a by-word in racing circles, and for many years a David Higgins has been commonly a coepted as representing the last dol-lar in one's possession. In the film production David Higgins' unusual characterization of Joe Braxton, the millionaire ex-jockey, surpasses his impersonation in the stage version, and many scenes, including the exciting situations at the Stock Exchange and the great race itself, that were only described in the play, are vividly de-picted in the film adaptation. In all these, Mr. Higgins versatility is re-edy, and The Courtship of the Cooks, vealed to a marked degree, and his talents as actor and horseman are shown unhampered by the inevitable limitations of a stage production.

vaudeville will also be seen today, headed by Harry Wyatt and company in the great comedy sketch entitled Nerve. There are four people in the act and special settings are used. Anthony and Adele present a novel sing-ing and whistling specialty introducing several musical selections on the ac-cordion. The other act is Billy Morse cordion. The other act is Billy Morse, a clever blackface comedian, who has a great line of southern songs and atories. Mutual movies and a funny Keystone comedy with popular Char-lie Chaplin, the greatest screen come-dian of them all, keeping everyone laughing for fifteen solid minutes, are also on the bill. If you want to see Charlie at his best, be sure and see this comedy. Matinee every day at 2.1, all seats 10 cents, children 5 cents. Evening at 7 and 8.45, 10, 15 and 20 cents. Three complete shows daily.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Edith Storey Appearing Today in "In the Latin Quarter," Two Reels.

A picture with many unusually striking incidents, is the one by the big Vitagraph cast presented in two reels, and entitled In the Latin Quarter, which is the feature at the Colonial theatre today. In this remarkably stirring drama appears Edith Storey, the leading lady of the Colonial's greatest success, The Christian, who plays the difficult role of Marie, the beautiful but neglected wife of Antonio Moreno, who plays the role of tonio Moreno, who plays the role of Jean Duval, the artist. The story abounds in thrilling and perplexing

Mrs. Alice Holt Has Exciting Voyage from England-Captain Feared Torpedoes from German Submarines.

Mrs. Alice Holt, who recently arrived at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James P. Parkinson of High street, from Manchester, England, will not soon forget her experiences while She came over on the Carmania and the ship was only a lit-tle way across, when two German submarines were sighted. The than most posing acts, a special ma-chine being carried to throw beautiful pictures on the models who form the central figures of each picture. The act is a decided novelty. A real big time act is that presented by John-son & Buckley, a lady and gentleman who will appear at this house for the remainder of the week. Their spe-clalty consists of singing, dancing and claity consists of singing, dancing and talking, with fine costume changes, etc., and they come highly recommended by the best houses in the country. Arthur Morris and a Pack of Cards is the billing of the third number on this excellent bill. Mr. Morris, who has been in America but a short time, is a corking monologist and a scientific card manipulator and his act is very amusing as well as interest-ing. Today only, the Exploits of Elaine will be shown and this seventh episode is the most thrilling seen yet. Other photoplays today are The Wayward Son, a drama, and His Doctor's Orders, a Joker comedy. All next week the Honey-Mooners, the Marcus musical attraction No. 2 company has been booked. This is a better and bigger musical comedy show than any that have played here this season.
